Commonwealth Coordinated Care Plus (CCC Plus) – CCC Plus is a Medicaid program that provides medical, behavioral, substance use disorder, and long term services and supports all under one program. CCC Plus is for full Medicaid members who are either: 65 and older, children or adults with disabilities, nursing facility residents, or someone receiving services through a home and community based waiver. The six Managed Care Programs delivering these services are the same as the Medallion 4.0 managed care organizations.

Copayment – The portion of FAMIS/Medicaid-allowed charges which a member is required to pay directly to the provider for certain services or procedures rendered.

Cost Sharing Reduction/Subsidy (CSR) – A discount that lowers the amount a person has to pay for deductibles, copayments, and coinsurance. In the Health Insurance Marketplace, cost-sharing reductions are often called “extra savings.” If a person qualifies, he/she must enroll in the “Silver” category of plan on the Marketplace to get the extra savings. This person would also have a lower out-of-pocket maximum, the total amount he/she’d have to pay for covered medical services per year. When the person reaches the out-of-pocket maximum, the insurance plan then covers 100% of all covered services.

Cover Virginia – Virginia’s statewide customer service center providing information and assistance for FAMIS, Medicaid, Plan First and other insurance options. The Cover Virginia statewide customer service center at (855) 242-8282 is staffed by knowledgeable and courteous representatives who can provide confidential application assistance and program information. You can apply, report changes, receive application status updates, or renew your coverage by calling Cover Virginia.

EPSDT – Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment (EPSDT) program is a program of preventive health care and well child examinations with tests and immunizations for children and teens from birth up to age 21. Medically necessary services needed to correct or improve defects and physical or mental illnesses (discovered during a screening examination) may be covered as a part of the EPSDT program even if they are not covered under the State’s Medicaid benefit plan.

FAMIS – Family Access to Medical Insurance Security (FAMIS, pronounced like “famous”) is Virginia’s Children’s Health Insurance Program. It is a comprehensive health insurance program for uninsured children from birth through age 18 with income between 149% and 205% of the federal poverty level. FAMIS is administered by DMAS and is funded by the state and federal government. FAMIS has higher income limits than Medicaid.

FAMIS MOMS – Is a health insurance program for pregnant women with income eligibility the same as FAMIS.

FAMIS Plus – Is the Medicaid program for children from birth through age 18 in families with incomes below 148% of the federal poverty level.

Children enrolled in FAMIS Select access health insurance through their employer-sponsored health plan/private plan and will present the identification card of that plan for payment. Children enrolled in FAMIS Select do not have access to direct FAMIS coverage except if needed to cover childhood immunizations.

This plan will be ending soon after the onset of the new Health Coverage for Adults.

Generic Drugs – Copies of drugs that are the same as a brand-name drug in dosage, safety, strength, quality, performance, and intended use. The Food and Drug Administration requires generic drugs to have the same quality, strength, purity, and stability as brand name drugs. Manufacturers of generic drugs don’t have the same investment costs as a developer of new drugs; therefore generic drugs are less expensive

Managed care has proven to enhance access to care, promote patient compliance and responsibility when seeking medical care and services, provide for continuity of care, encourage preventive care, and produce better medical outcomes. Most Virginia FAMIS and Medicaid members are required to receive their medical care through managed care programs.

Managed Care Organization (MCO) – is a health plan contracted to provide medical services and coordinate health care services through a network of providers. They contract with DMAS to provide, arrange for, deliver, pay for, or reimburse any of the costs of health care services for FAMIS and Medicaid enrollees.

Medallion 4.0 – A statewide mandatory Medicaid program which utilizes contracted managed care organizations (MCOs) to provide medical services to qualified individuals.

Medically Necessary – Reasonable and necessary services for the diagnosis or treatment of an illness or injury or to improve physical functioning.

Medically Needy – Individuals who meet Medicaid covered group requirements, but have excess income. A medically needy determination requires a resource test and includes pregnant women, children under the age of 18, foster care and adoption assistance, and those in ICF/IIDs up to age 21, ABD up to age 21. Parents and caretaker relatives do not qualify under medically needy. Medically needy individuals are excluded from managed care enrollment.

Medicare – Medicare is the federal health insurance program for: People who are 65 or older, certain younger people with disabilities, and people with End-Stage Renal Disease (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a transplant, sometimes called ESRD). Open Enrollment (Medicaid) – The time frame in which Medicaid/FAMIS Plus members are allowed to change from one MCO to another, without cause, at least once every 12 months. The dates of open enrollment depend upon where the person lives in Virginia. Within sixty (60) days prior to the open enrollment effective date, DMAS will inform the member of the opportunity to remain with the current health plan or change to another health plan without cause. Those members who do not choose a new MCO within sixty (60) days of the open enrollment period shall remain in his or her current health plan selection until their next open enrollment effective date.

Out-of-Network Coverage – This is coverage provided outside of the established MCO network; medical care rendered to a member by a provider not affiliated with the MCO or contracted with the MCO.

Patient Pay – Individuals with income may have to contribute to the cost of their long-term care services.

Plan First – The Medicaid fee-for-service family planning program. The purpose of this program is to reduce unplanned pregnancies, increase spacing between births, reduce infant mortality rates, and reduce the rates of abortions due to unintended pregnancies. Men and women not eligible for full benefit Medicaid or FAMIS/FAMIS MOMS, who have income above 139% and 205% of the federal poverty level and meet citizenship and identity requirements may be eligible for Plan First.

Premium – The monthly amount paid for a health insurance policy.

Premium Tax Credits – A tax credit people use to lower their monthly insurance payment (called your “premium”) when they enroll in a plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace. The tax credit is based on the income estimate and household information people report on their Marketplace applications. If the person’s estimated income falls between 100% and 400% of the federal poverty level for his/her household size, he/she qualifies for a premium tax credit. A person can use all, some, or none of the premium tax credit in advance to lower his/her monthly premium. If he/she uses more advance payments of the tax credit than he/she qualifies for based on the final yearly income, the individual must repay the difference when filing federal income taxes. If the individual uses less premium tax credit than he/she qualifies for, a refundable credit is issued when taxes are filed.

Primary Care Provider (PCP) – The doctor or clinic that provides most personal health care needs, gives the recipient referrals to other health care providers when needed, and monitors FAMIS/Medicaid member health. A PCP may be an internist, a pediatrician (children’s doctor), OB/GYN (women’s doctor), family doctor, or certain clinics and health departments.

People qualify for these by having a certain life event, including losing health coverage, moving, getting married, or having or adopting a child. If the person qualifies for a SEP, he/she usually has up to 60 days following the event to enroll in a plan. If the person misses that window, he/she has to wait until the next Open Enrollment Period to apply.

Third-Party Liability – The legal obligation of third parties, i.e., certain individuals, entities, or programs, to pay all or part of the expenditures for medical assistance furnished under the State Plan.

VaCMS (Virginia Case Management System) – This is the integrated eligibility and enrollment computer system housed at the Virginia Department of Social Services and used by the local Departments of Social Services to determine eligibility for Medicaid, FAMIS, and other benefits, and manage the enrolled cases on an ongoing basis.

Case #1: THE MARTINEZ FAMILY ANSWERS -

- 1. The family size is 5 for everyone – Jose, Maria, Juan, Rosa and Angel

- 2. Maria’s monthly income is - $$7.75 \times 29 = \224.75 weekly $\times 4.3 = $966.43$

3. The family income is:

Jose’s Gross Monthly Income	$1,290
Maria’s Gross Monthly Income	$966.43
Total Monthly Gross Income	$2,256.43

4. Do the children qualify for the FAMIS programs? If so, which one(s)?

Juan, Rosa and Angel qualify for FAMIS Plus because the monthly income requirement (148% FPL) for a family of 5 is $3,785 and their parents’ income is $2,256.43.

What do the parents qualify for?

Jose and Maria each have a household of 5 making $2,256/month. LIFC for 5 is between $815 and $1,242 depending upon the locality in which parents live. They are over these limits. The New Health Coverage for Adults might be an option since a household of 5 can have an income of up to $3,529, but they have not been in this country for 5 years so they do not meet the 5 year/40 work quarter requirement for that program. This is also a requirement of the Plan First program, which they are financially eligible for, so they can’t get that either.

Even though they actually make just under 100% FPL ($2,557 for a household of 5), they can still shop for private insurance on the Federal Marketplace during annual Open Enrollment. They do qualify for financial assistance with purchasing that coverage.

In six months, they could apply for the New Health Coverage for Adults and at that time they may finally meet the 5 year/40 work quarter requirement.

6. What documentation may LDSS/CVCPU request to determine eligibility for this family?

They might need to provide income verification, if their income is not able to be verified electronically or is not reasonably compatible with what is found electronically. Also, if their immigration status information cannot be verified electronically, they may be asked to provide a copy of their green cards or other documentation.

Case # 2: THE MASON FAMILY ANSWERS – Single parent with non-custodial parent claiming children

1. The household size:

Jane – 1 (herself)

Anna – 3 (herself, mom, and sibling)

Blaine – 3 (himself, mom, and sibling)

Carl – 3 (himself and two tax dependent children, would file a separate application)

2. The family income is:

Jane’s Gross Monthly Income $ 2,494 ($$14.50 \times 40 \times 4.3$)
+ $500 alimony
$2,994

Anna and Blaine’s Gross Monthly Income (same as mom)
$2,994

Carl’s Gross Monthly Income $ 3,750 ($$45,000 / 12$)
- $500 alimony
$3,250

Note: alimony income is counted for Jane and deducted for Carl, because the decree it is from was filed prior to January 1, 2019. If the decree had been filed after January 1, 2019, the alimony would not count as income for Jane and would not be a deduction for Carl.

3. For which program(s) do the members of this family qualify?

Jane: $2,994 – for household of 1 she is above Medicaid eligibility, but as she already has insurance through her employer she can simply indicate that she does not need health coverage

Anna and Blain: $2,994 – for a household of 3, is within the limits for FAMIS ($3,551)

Carl: $3,250– for a household of 3 is within the income limit for eligible for premium tax credits and cost-sharing subsidies in the Federal Marketplace. If he lives in Virginia, he would also be eligible for Plan First.

4. What difference would it make if the divorce decree had been filed March 15, 2019?

Jane’s and the kids’ income would drop to $2,494 because alimony would not be counted. She would be then eligible for the New Adult Medicaid and the kids would be eligible for FAMIS Plus instead. Carl’s income would rise to $3,750 since the alimony would no longer be deducted from his income. He would still be Marketplace eligible.

Case #3: JOHNSON FAMILY ANSWERS – Family with working child

1. Household size

5 for everyone in the family

2. Coverage Options for the family –

Ned Johnson’s Gross Monthly Income	$2,096.25 ($975 x 2.15 for bi-weekly income)
Wanda Johnson’s Gross Monthly Income	$1,290 ($300 x 4.3 for weekly income)
The Johnson’s Countable Income	$3,386.25

Sarah’s income is not counted since she does not meet the annual threshold for dependents for filing taxes. The family’s total countable income is under the 2020 FAMIS Plus limit for a family of 5 ($3,785). Therefore, the children in the family are eligible for FAMIS Plus. The parents are under the guideline for the New Health Coverage for Adults ($3,529), so they would be eligible for state coverage too!

3. If Mrs. Johnson was pregnant, you would look at financial eligibility for Medicaid for Pregnant Women...

The family income figure would be the same as above: $3,386.25. The family size for Mrs. Johnson’s eligibility would, however, be a family of 6 and therefore, Mrs. Johnson would be financially eligible for Medicaid for Pregnant Women ($4,337 for a family of 6).*

Note: once the baby is born, the family would report the change in family size to their local DSS. At that time, the entire family’s eligibility for coverage would be redetermined. If no income changes had occurred, the children would continue to be eligible for FAMIS Plus, as would the new baby. Since the family size has increased for everyone, mom and dad still be eligible for the New Coverage for Adults.*

Case #4: THE SMITH FAMILY

Stacy Smith is a 17 year old, pregnant teen living with her parents and her boyfriend in Alexandria. Stacy's parents, Steven and Sarah Smith, both work full-time. Steven Smith is an Assistant Manager at a local restaurant earning $1,700 semi-monthly. Sarah Smith is a part-time instructional aide at a local elementary school earning $10,000 annually. Stacy has been working part-time in a book store earning $6.50 per hour. Stacy works 20 hours per week and is paid weekly. Stacy also has two younger siblings who live in the home with her: Seth (7) and Samantha (11). Stacy and her siblings are all claimed as dependents on Steven and Sarah's taxes.

Stacy's boyfriend, Ryan Jones, works at a local restaurant 30 hours per week earning $8.00 per hour and gets paid every week. He files his own taxes and is not claimed as a dependent on anyone else's taxes.

Steven Smith's employer has decided to no longer provide health coverage, and the current insurance coverage will end at the end of the month. The school nurse at Mrs. Smith's school suggested she contact your project for more information on the Medicaid and FAMIS programs.

- 1. What is the household size for each member of the household?

- 2. What is the monthly income for each member of the household?

- 3. Does the family qualify for coverage? If yes, for which program?

- 4. A) Would anything change if Stacy was 21, living with her parents, and not claimed as a tax dependent?

B) What would happen if, after Stacy had her baby, she moved out of the home to live with her boyfriend? What programs would Stacy, Ryan and their baby qualify for?

C) Would there be any difference in eligibility if they lived in Stafford? Winchester?

Case #4: THE SMITH FAMILY ANSWERS – multi-generational household with pregnant teen

1. What is the household size for each member of the household?

Steven Smith – 5 (himself, his wife and his 3 children claimed as dependents)

Sarah Smith – 5 (herself, her husband and their 3 children claimed as dependents)

Seth Smith – 5 (himself, his two parents and his two siblings)

Samantha Smith – 5 (herself, her two parents and her two siblings)

Stacy Smith – 5 (herself, her parents, her 2 siblings) – her unborn baby would only count if she was not eligible for full benefit FAMIS or FAMIS Plus

Ryan Jones – 1 (himself – separate application)

2. What is the income for each member of the household?

Steven Smith's income is $1,700 twice per month ($$1,700 \times 2$) for a total of $3,400. Sarah Smith earns $10,000 annually or $833.33 per month ($$10,000/12$). Total family income is $4,233.33 per month.

Stacy's income is not included since she makes $6,708 annually, which is less than the threshold that requires you to file taxes ($12,200 for 2019 taxes). The Ryan's monthly income is $1,032.

3. Does the family qualify for coverage? If yes, for which program?

Stacy and her 2 siblings would all qualify for FAMIS because their monthly income falls below the FAMIS income limit ($5,242). Stacy's parents both make too much for the New Coverage for Adults, but would qualify for Plan First. They also qualify for premium tax credits and cost sharing subsidies in the Federal Marketplace since Steven no longer is offered employer coverage.

Ryan would also qualify for the New Coverage for Adults since his income is below that limit ($1,469).

4. A) Would anything change if Stacy was 21, living with her parents, and not claimed as a tax dependent?

As a pregnant woman, she would be a single filer with a household of 2 with no dependents. Given the $559/month income ($$6.50/\text{hour} \times 20 \text{ hours} \times 4.3$), she would be eligible for Medicaid for Pregnant Women. The household size for her parents and siblings would drop to 4, with the kids still eligible for FAMIS and the parents still eligible for FFM coverage or Plan First.

B) What would happen if after Stacy had her baby, she moved out of the home to live with her boyfriend?

If Stacy and Ryan were living together but not married, they would each have a household of 1 and they would have to decide who would claim the child as a dependent on their taxes. The baby would have a household of 3 since he/she is a dependent who is living with both parents who are not married and counting mom and dad's income would be eligible for FAMIS Plus ($$559 + $1,032 = $1,591$).

If Stacy claims the child, she would be a household of 2 and be eligible for LIFC if she lived in a Group III locality, but if she lived in a Group I or II locality, she would be eligible for New Health Coverage for Adults. Ryan would be still be eligible for the New Health Coverage for Adults.

If Ryan claims the child, he would still be eligible for the New Health Coverage for Adults (income of $1,032 as household of a 2 is less than the threshold of $1,983). Stacy would be eligible for this coverage as well.

Case #5: THE GRANT/SHORT FAMILY ANSWERS – unmarried parents of two living together

1. What is the household size for each member of the family?

Bob – 3 (himself and his two children)

Sue – 1 (herself)

Josh – 4 (parents and sibling)

Ellen - 4 (parents and sibling)

2. What is the income for the family members?

Bob: $3,100 a month

Sue: $860 a month ($\400×2.15)

Josh: $3,960 a month (Bob's $3,100 + Sue's $860)

Ellen: $3,960 a month

3. What coverage options are available to these family members?

Bob is eligible to purchase private insurance through the Federal Marketplace with premium assistance and subsidies. He would also be eligible for Plan First. The children would be eligible for FAMIS (under the limit of $4,477). Sue would be eligible for the New Health Coverage for Adults.

4. What would happen to income and household size if Bob and Sue got married? What if they decided to continue to file separately?

Bob, Sue, Josh and Ellen would all have a household size of 4 and their family's gross monthly income would be $3,960. The kids would still be eligible for FAMIS. Even if Bob and Sue decided to continue filing separately, for the purposes of Medicaid eligibility, married couples are always considered part of the same household even if they do not file taxes jointly.

Bob and Sue would be eligible for Plan First. They would not, however, be eligible for any help with coverage in the Federal Marketplace. In order to get Tax Credits and Subsidies, spouses must file joint tax returns.

Case #6: THE JONES FAMILY ANSWERS

1. What is the household size for each member of the family?

Mae Jones – 2 – as the tax filer, her household is made up of herself and her adopted grandson
Jack Jones – 2 – he is a tax dependent who is claimed by a tax filer and therefore his household is the same as the filer claiming him

Kristen, Danielle and Katie Clark – all 3 – household is determined using the non-filer rules – and includes the person, any siblings (2) and parents (none) living in the home with her

2. What is the income for the family unit(s)?

Mae: $1,424 – Jack’s Survivor benefits are not included because he is living with at least one parent (adopted) and he has no other income that would exceed the annual tax filing threshold for dependents

Jack: $1,424 – his parent’s (adopted) income is included but not his social security survivor’s benefits

Kristen, Danielle and Katie: have no monthly income

3. Would each of the children qualify financially for one of the FAMIS programs? If so, which one? Would Mae qualify for anything?

Jack, Kristen, Danielle, and Katie would be eligible for FAMIS Plus.

Mae would be eligible for the New Health Coverage for Adults. She has a household size of 2 and makes $1,424. This is less than the income limit for this coverage which is $1,983. She is age eligible until she turns 65.

4. Should they all apply on the same application?

Yes

6. What would happen to their coverage if Mae decided to claim the 3 girls as dependents?

Mae’s and Jack’s family sizes would rise to 5. The girls, however, would still each have a household of 3. They would now fall under the exception to the tax filer household rules – they are not the biological, adopted, or stepchildren of Mae, so you would still only count their siblings in the household. That being said, all the children would still be FAMIS Plus eligible and Mae would still be eligible for the New Health Coverage for Adults.
